THE SENTINEL.

Swallowing Oysters Alive.

At a late hour, the other night, the door of an oyster house in our city was thrust open, and in stalked a hero from the Sucker State. He was quite six feet high, spare, somewhat stooped, with a hungry, anxious countenance, and his hands pushed clear down to the bottom of his breeches pockets. After taking a position, he indulged in a long stare at the man opening the bivalves, and slowly ejaculated—"Isters!"

"Yes, sir," responded the attentive operator—"and fine ones they are too."

"Well, I've heard of Isters afore," says he, "but this is the fust time I've seed'm and pre-haps I'll know what thar made of afore I git out of town."

Having expressed this desperate intention, he cautiously approached the plate and scrutinized the uncased shell fish, with a gravity and interest which would have done honor to the most illustrious searcher into the hidden mysteries of nature. At length he began to soliloquise on the difficulty of getting them out, and how queer they looked when out.

"I never seed any thin' hold on so—takes an amazin site of screwin, hoss, to get'm out, and ain't they slick and slippery when they does come? Smooth as an eel! I've a good mind to give that fellow lodging, just to realize the effects, as uncle Jess used to say about speculation."

"Well, sir," was the reply, "down with two bits, and you can have a dozen."

"Two bits!" exclaimed the Sucker, "now come, that's stickin' it on rite strong, hoss, for isters. A dozen of 'em ain't nothin' to a chicken, and there's no gettin' more'n a picayune apiece for them. I've only realized forty-five picayunes on my first venture to St. Louis. I'll tell you what, I'll gin you two chickens for a dozen, if you'll conclude to deal."

A wag, who was standing by indulging in a dozen, winked to the attendant to shell out, and the offer was accepted.

"Now mind," repeated the Sucker, "All fair, two chickens for a dozen—you are a witness, mister," turning at the same time to the wag, "none of your tricks, for I've hearn that you city chaps are mity slip'pry coons."

The bargain being fairly understood, our Sucker squared himself for the onset, deliberately put off his seal skin, tucked up his sleeves, and awaited the appearance of No. 1. It came, he saw—and quickly it was bolted. A moment's dreadful pause ensued. The wag dropped his knife and fork, with a look of mingled amazement and horror—something akin to Shakespear's Hamlet, on seeing his daddy's ghost—while he burst into the exclamation—

"Swallowed alive, as I'm a Christian!"

Our Sucker here had opened his mouth with pleasure a moment before, but now it stood open. Fear—a horrid dread of he didn't know what—a consciousness that all wasn't right, and ignorant of the extent of the wrong—the uncertainty of the moment was terrible. Urged to desperation, he faltered out—

"What on earth's the row?"

"Did you swallow it alive?" inquired the wag.

"I swallered it jest as he gin it to me!" said the Sucker.

"You're a dead man!" exclaimed his anxious friend; "the creature is alive and will eat right through you," added he, in a most hopeless tone.

"Git a pizen pump and pump it out!" shouted the Sucker, in a frenzy, his eyes fairly starting from their sockets. "O gracious!—what'll I do?—it's got hold of my innards already, and I'm dead as a chicken!—do somethin' for me, do—don't let the infernal sea toad eat me afore your eyes!"

"Why didn't you put some of this on it?" inquired the wag, pointing to a bottle of peppersauce."

The hint was enough—the Sucker upon the instant seized the bottle, and desperately wrenched out the cork, swallowed half the contents at a draught. He fairly squealed from its effects, and gasped, and blowed, and pitched, and twisted as if it were coursing through him with electric effect, while at the same time his eyes ran a stream of tears. At length, becoming a little composed, his waggish adviser approached, almost bursting with suppressed laughter, and enquired—

"How are you now, old fellow—did you kill it?"

"Well, I did, hoss'—ugh ugh o-o-o my innards. If that Ister critter's dying agonies didn't stir a ruption in me equal to a small earthquake, then 'taint no use saying it—it squirmed like a serpent, when that killing stuff touched it; hu!"—and here, with a countenance made up of suppressed agony and present determination, he paused to give force to his words, and slowly and deliberately remarked, "If you get two chickens from me for that live animal I'm d—d!" and seizing his seal skin, he vanished.

The shout of laughter, and the contortions of the company at this finale, would have made a spectator believe that they had all been "swallowing oysters alive."

Are You Insured?

Are you insured? Most likely you answer in the affirmative. You are the prudent man. You have provided against fire and flood, accident and death. You cannot be reproached with carelessness or neglect in making provision for the temporal wants of your household. You have insured your property and your life. No danger of forgetting this. The active and gentlemanly insurance agents have reminded you. The advertisements in the journals of the day, and the printed circulars of the insurance companies, have reminded you of the importance of insurance, and informed you where and how you might effect it on the most favorable terms. You have not neglected to secure the material benefits of insurance. And this is well.

But what of your immortal soul? Is there no insurance for that? Can poverty and bodily want be guarded against, and is there no certain provision for the safety and happiness of the undying spirit? Are you shut up to the necessity of trusting to chance? Must you tread with a doubtful step upon the threshold of eternity? Surely not. You are not thus left to darkness or despair. The certain path to endless felicity is revealed in the Book of God—the strait and narrow path that leads to life eternal. Christ is the way. He invites you, saying "He that cometh unto me, I will in no wise cast out." Here is the Insurance Agent for the soul—our Divine Mediator and Redeemer. His policy of insurance is written, not with pen and ink, but upon the fleshy tablets of the believing heart. "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit that we are the children of God; and if children, then heirs." What assurance of earthly treasure can equal this?

Is your soul insured? If not, how can you justify yourself? Is such neglect rational?—Rather, is it not an exhibition of stupendous folly? O reader! make sure work for eternity, by believing on the Son of God; for "he that hath the Son hath life."

"This the universal bliss—
Bliss for every soul designed;
God's primeval promise this,
God's great gift to all mankind.
Blessed in Christ this moment be,
Blessed to all eternity."

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO., OF HARTFORD, CONN.

W. H. CROW,

General Agent,

For the State of North Carolina, Petersburg, Va., and surrounding Counties.

IN addition to the loss and prompt payment of Justus Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

EXCHANGE OF N. C. BONDS FOR STOCKS.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, September 27th. 1866.

The Public are reminded that, in pursuance of an Ordinance of the late Convention, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, until 12 M., on the first day of November next, for the exchange of the principal of bonds issued by the State, before the 20th. May 1861, for the Stocks held by the State in the various Rail Roads and other Companies, of which the following are the principal:

North Carolina R. R. Co.	$3,000,000,
Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	682,500,
Atlantic & N. C. R. R.	$1,066,000,
Western N. C. R. R. Co.	$1,418,000,
Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Co.	$ 350,000,

No bid less than par will be entertained. Any premiums offered may be applied to payment of the Interest due on the bonds offered in exchange. Bids will be opened in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller, and those will be accepted most advantageous to the State.

Purchasers of preferred stock will not obtain rights greater than holders of stocks not preferred.

In consequence of the bonds and liens, held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDER—the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

FOR SALE.

ONE THOUSAND ACRES of valuable land, lying on Neuse River, in the County of Johnson, and on both sides of the N. C. R. Road, between Smithfield and Stallings' Depots.

I prefer selling the whole tract to one man, but will cut it into hundred acre tracts to suit purchasers. To a company of men wishing small farms and pleasant healthy locations, it holds out good inducements, as I will sell on favourable terms. Persons wishing to examine the land, and coming by Rail Road, can be put off the Cars at Vinson's Mill, where they will always find me.

I will also sell a TWENTY HORSE power SAW MILL, in good working order, with teams, waggons, and all appurtenances.

The Baltimore Imbroglio.

The controversy between the Radicals and Conservatives in Baltimore has not yet culminated in an open rupture. We sincerely hope it will not. The voice of the South is for peace. Our people prefer that their Northern friends should yield what they can, with honor and the preservation of the Constitution and the laws, rather than provoke a repetition of the war, simply for partizan ends.

The South is not allowed to be a party in their political contests. Our people are too much concerned about their material condition to desire any part in partizan conflicts. But the voice of the South is emphatic for the preservation and enforcement of the Constitution and the government, and the maintenance of the Union of the States and of law and order.

The Southern people, whatever may have been their former political opinion, are united in support of the government and Constitution of the United States, as expounded by Andrew Johnson in his messages to Congress. While they have no direct party affiliation with any Northern party, they are not blind to the fact, that the Northern Conservatives and Democrats are true to the Constitution and the Union and desire the early and reasonable adjustment of the difficulties of the nation. They believe that the policy of the President and his friends most accords with the Constitution and will most certainly tend to the early restoration of the peace and harmony of the Union. As such they desire their success and the defeat of the Radicals. But they prefer that this should be done by the peaceable methods provided by our system for the settlement of all controversies. If civil war should again break forth, it will not be sought or provoked by the Southern people or by Southern sympathisers.

Ought We to be Silent?

We have been repeatedly importuned for the last eight months, by some excellent friends, never to notice in these columns "the Standard or Mr. Holden." The reasons assigned for this request are, "they have no influence,"—"no one believes what they say," and such like.—Nothing would be more pleasant to us, than to see the entire press of the State conducted on the highest principles and freed from all acrimony and bitterness, and it would afford us the highest satisfaction if duty did not force us to notice the Standard otherwise than in the kindest terms.

But our friends are mistaken. Those who think the Standard should not be noticed, seldom read it. Its influence for evil is still great. The Standard and its Editor have done more to injure North Carolina and the South at Washington and the North, among those who are hostile to our peace and quiet, than Brownlow has, or perhaps any other Southern enemy our people have. The encouragement it has given to that class of men in the State, who are now identified with the Radical party and opposed to the President, the Constitution and the Union, has been greater than from any other source.

It continues to repeat, in the most unblushing manner, statements which cannot be sustained by any respectable proof,—to reiterate its charges of persecution of Union men, although repeatedly denied,—to injure, by unfounded assaults, many of our best citizens, all to the damage of the State and the South,—and now, when the Northern mind is excited to the highest pitch, it repeats its stale falsehoods both of the past and the present. Ought we to be silent? What do our readers think of the following, from the last issue of that paper?

We are glad to know that at no precinct in our glorious old North State was any voter, by moral or physical influence, prevented from giving full expression to his political views.—Weldon State.

If this be true, it shows the good effects of the new order of things. It proves that the old flag protects all who rest beneath its folds. In 1864, in many localities, persons who voted against Davis and Vance were reviled, beaten, arrested, and sent to Salisbury or Castle Thunder on "suspicion" of disloyalty; soldiers who voted for peace candidates were bucked, suspended by their thumbs, and sent to the front to be slain in battle. The names of those who voted against Vance were marked on the backs of their tickets so that they might be spotted to be put in the army, or be embarrassed or ruined in their business by combinations against them. The more readily to ascertain who voted against him, Gov. Vance, in violation of the law, caused his tickets to be printed on colored paper. At one box in Virginia, the votes cast by soldiers against Vance were taken out and destroyed by the inspectors; at this place, persons visited the Hospitals where the soldiers were voting, took the anti-Vance tickets out of their hands and destroyed them, while officers stood over the ballot-boxes swearing that any soldier, no matter how sick or infirm, who voted against Vance, should be at once sent to the front; and at one place in Virginia, a sick soldier who had voted against Vance was taken out of his bunk by some ruffians, his head shaved and ridden on a rail. All this was bad enough, but we tell the President and we tell the Congress that it is intolerable that the very men, who thus trampled on and scourged the Unionists of this State, should now control and lord it over our people. If these leaders who are lording it over us, were left to themselves, and feared no consequences from their deeds, no man would now be allowed to vote in this State who could not swear or prove that he was a true Confederate and in full sympathy with the rebellion.

Last week, at Chicago, a man and his wife died of cholera without any attendant except a child seven years of age. Several hours after their decease they were discovered by the police. Sitting on the floor, in one corner, was the little boy, who had passed the night in solitude and sorrow, frightened by the solemnity of the scene, but unconscious of his great loss.

A San Francisco paper says there are seventy five thousand coolies in California; and that they are a demoralizing blight to any community in which they are domiciled. It says "they are filthy, thievish, and infamously vile."

The Dead of the Past,—Interesting Memorials.

"In memory of GAVIN HOGG, Esq., born August 8th., 1788; died Oct. 28th., 1835."

Gavin Hogg was one of the brightest lights of the bar in North Carolina, in his day, and, both as jurist and advocate, had few if any superiors. He commenced his professional life in the town of Windsor, Bertie county, where he soon established a reputation for profound legal learning, the strictest integrity and industry, and untiring attention to business. His health having suffered severely from his long residence and practice in the lower counties, he removed to Raleigh. Here he married Miss Johnson, of Connecticut, sister of the first Mrs. Thomas P. Devereux, by whom he had three children, of whom only one, Dr. Thos. D. Hogg, of this city, is now living. He continued the practice of the law in the eastern counties, and also in the Supreme Court, where he met with, and was regarded as the equal of, Thomas Ruffin, William Gaston, James Iredell, Moses Mordecai, Henry Seawell, Thos. P. Devereux, and the other distinguished advocates at that bar.

Upon the death of his first wife, he married Mrs. Sarah Blount, daughter of the late Sherwood Haywood, and widow of Jno. Gray Blount, who now survives him and resides in this city.

Mr. Hogg died in the city of New York, and his remains were brought to Raleigh for interment. Cut off in the maturity of his powers and usefulness, he would have continued to adorn, had he lived, the profession of which he was so eminent a member, and society, of which he was a recognised ornament.

"Beneath this stone, erected by conjugal affection, are buried the mortal remains of JAMES FAUNTLEROY TAYLOR, late Attorney General of North Carolina, who died on the 29th day of June, A. D. 1828, aged 37 years."

It is the opinion of Mr. Taylor's cotemporaries that, had not his career been cut short by death at so early an age, it would been one of brilliancy and usefulness. Possessed of a strong and vigorous intellect, improved by all the advantages of cultivation and education, he had already obtained distinction, and was rapidly rising to higher eminence. His social qualities are described to have been of the most genial and generous type.

He was born in Chatham county in 1791 and came of the best revolutionary stock. He was a member of the Legislature from Wake in 1823, and was elected Attorney General in 1825, which office he held at the time of his decease.

Mrs. Taylor still survives him and resides in this city, where she has passed a widow-hood of exceeding usefulness in the education of youth,—than which there is no vocation more honorable, and, we might perhaps add, worse recompensed.

"Sacred to the memory of WILLIAM PECK, who was born April 1, 1773, and died June 21, 1851, in the 79th year of his age."

Who, that knew him, does not remember William Peck,—with his broad, Quaker cast of appearance, honest, sturdy face, and sincerity and simplicity of character? Who, of our elder citizens, ever pass his old place of business, near the eastern corner of the Capitol Square, and glance up at the unostentatious sign, still hanging and so suggestive of his unaffected peculiarities, without thinking of the venerable old "Commission Merchant," who enjoyed the confidence and esteem of the whole community? Not one, we dare say.

Mr. Peck was born in Norfolk, Va., but was raised in Petersburg. He emigrated to Hawfields, Orange County, in this State, and commenced merchandizing in January 1797. In July 1798, he removed to Raleigh, and engaged in the business which he prosecuted until his death. In October 1810 he was appointed Postmaster of the City, under Mr. Madison, of whose administration and of the war of 1812 he was a firm and zealous supporter. He resigned the position in 1819.

We have said that Mr. Peck enjoyed the confidence and regard of the entire community.—We believe that this was the case, almost without exception. We know that he was the intimate personal friend of such men as Duncan Cameron, William Boylan and Joseph Gales.—He was one of the Executors of the latter, and, with rare self-abnegation, declined a legacy, left him in the will of the testator, in favor of the other numerous legatees. We presume that there never was a more precise and punctual man. His ideas with regard to the virtue of punctuality, indeed, fairly verged upon eccentricity. Nor was this his only eccentricity. He had many, but they were all honest.

We have heard it said that when the Marquis La Fayette visited this City in 1826, there was no one, even among the then celebrities of the State who flocked to do the patriot honor, who so seemed to impress him as Mr. Peck, though there could have been nothing more unlike than the Republican and unsophisticated manners of the one and the polished address of the old French hero and nobleman. We have often heard Mr. P's salutation of him, on being presented, described. Doffing the broad-brim, which he invariably wore, he exclaimed: "Friend of America,—friend of Liberty,—welcome, welcome!" This was characteristic, and we may be sure that it was sincere, out-spoken and artless.

"In memory of WILLIAM ASHLEY, born Sept. 28, 1793. Died May 3rd, 1852, in the 59th year of his age."

"Uncle Billy," as he was often familiarly designated, was a good carpenter and a good citizen. Scrupulously observant of the Horatian maxim,—ne sutor ultra crepidam (no shoe-maker beyond his last),—though he knew nothing of Horace and probably cared less, Mr. Ashley adhered to his humble but useful sphere in life. To be true to his work and to his engagements, to his family and to himself, to his neighbors, his country and his Maker,—this was his ambition, and the best and truest of all ambitions it is. Though denied the advantages of all but the most common education, he was a man of a shrewd and reliable judgment, and of an excellent practical sense, that often caused his counsel to be sought and followed.

In the obscurest walks of life, as much as in the broad paths of distinction and eminence, a man may fill up the measure of usefulness, and stand as a worthy exemplar. To say that the humble subject of this sketch was an honest man, is praise enough for a monarch, and applied to William Ashley, it is a tribute well merited.

"A wit's a feather and a chief a rod,
An honest man's the noblest work of God."

FROM WASHINGTON.

The French Evacuation and Protection of the Juarez Government--Acquisition of Territory by the United States--The Monroe Doctrine--The Alabama Claims--Peremptory Demands on England for Indemnity--The Issue in Maryland--President Johnson Supports Governor Swann--Peace Will be Maintained, &c.

(Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.)

WASHINGTON, October 24.—The instructions to Hon. L. D. Campbell, Minister to Mexico, were prepared on Saturday last, but owing to his non-arrival, were not delivered to him until to-day. It is doubtful, however, whether private affairs will not prevent his immediate departure. He has asked leave of the President to remain long enough to fix up his affairs, but the President replied that the urgency of the case admitted of no delay, and that if he cannot leave at once, another minister must be appointed in his stead. Should he decline going, another appointment will be made to-morrow.

The French government ask for an extension of the time for the withdrawal of the first instalment of its troops till January first, offering in that case to waive the time allowed for the withdrawal of the balance of its troops, and remove all the troops substantially at one time. This proposition has not been assented to, but it is insisted that it shall commence at once, and proceed as rapidly as possible. It is hoped that the whole body of troops will be withdrawn within three months. In view of the anarchy prevalent in Mexico, our government will be prepared to protect the Juarez government, and finally establish it. In consideration of this, Lower California and the northern part of Sinola and Chihuahua are to be ceded to the United States. No agreement has been made by our government to guarantee French claims against Mexico, but should it appear expedient, it will not hesitate to do so. The enforcement of the Monroe doctrine and the establishment of a stable republican government in Mexico are considered of paramount importance. The matter has been fully discussed in the Cabinet, and unanimously agreed upon.

THE DEMAND ON ENGLAND.

Some time since the instructions were sent to Minister Adams to make a peremptory demand for indemnity for the losses sustained by our merchant marine from the depredations of the rebel privateers. An evasive reply was returned to this by the British government. He was instructed to repeat the demand, and did so, but to this no definite reply has yet been received, but the tone of the British press and the feeling show that they are willing to submit the matter to arbitration, or to a board of national commissioners. This will not be assented to, but prompt and full payment insisted upon.

The National Intelligencer has the following on the same subject:

OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS.

The statement is made by well-informed correspondents, that Hon. L. D. Campbell, minister to Mexico, has received important instructions. The Government, it is reported, requires urgency of action in respect to them. It is said that the French Government asks for an extension of the time for the withdrawal of its troops until January 1, offering in that case to remove all the troops substantially at one time. It is urged, however, that the withdrawal shall commence at once and proceed as rapidly as possible.

Our Government is represented as being prepared to protect the Juarez government and finally establish it. In consideration of this Lower California and the northern part of Sinaloa and Chihuahua are to be ceded to the United States. No agreement has been made by our Government to guarantee French claims against Mexico. This matter will be controlled by circumstances. The establishment of a stable republican Government in Mexico is considered of paramount importance.

Some time since instructions were sent to Minister Adams to make a peremptory demand for indemnity for the losses sustained by our merchant marine from the depredations of the rebel privateers. An evasive reply was returned, it is said, to this, by the British Government. He was instructed to repeat the demand, and did so, but to this no definite reply has yet been received, but the tone of the British press and the feelers put out indicate that they are willing to submit the matter to arbitration or to a board of national commissioners. This will not be assented to, but prompt and full payment insisted upon.

We publish these revelations as they reach us from unusually well-informed sources, but cannot vouch for their entire accuracy.

[Cor. of the Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, October 23.—Governor Swann has been here to-day, and had an interview with the President in reference to the political complications in Maryland. The subject was also considered in Cabinet meeting. Under the decision of the Supreme Court in the Dorr case, it is the duty of the President, when called upon by the Executive of any State for aid in suppressing tumult or insurrection within his State which cannot be suppressed by the force under his control, to furnish such assistance. This will be done in the present instance should the necessity arise, but it is hoped that it may be avoided. The President has no right to go behind the call of the Governor, and will have nothing to do with the matter unless thus called upon.

THE BALTIMORE ISSUE.

The proclamation of Governor Swann is fully approved by the President, and should it be necessary for him to call for aid in maintaining peace and order and enforcing his legal authority, it will be promptly furnished. In the case of the threatened resistance in Louisiana by the Boys in Grey to the authority of the Governor of that State in the removal of the Sheriffs, the same course will be pursued; but it is hoped that in both cases the necessity may not arise.

A QUESTION.—With the President removed, and General Grant officially decapitated, and the Southern States reduced to territories, and the Southern whites held in bondage, and with Brownlow and Butler and Phillips "running the machine," the condition and fate of the republic might be confidently foretold. What would five-twenties be worth then?—New York Times.

The London Lancet says: "A corresponden[t] communicates to us a telegram which he received by the Atlantic cable from a patient who, being seized with a renewed attack of illness from which he had suffered in this country, and for which he had been successfully treated, telegraphed to his old medical attendant for directions. These were returned by the same channel without delay. This prescription will rank among the curiosities of telegraphy."

Views of a New York Merchant on the Constitutional Amendment.

A New York merchant, in a letter to a well known business firm in Richmond, expresses confidence that Hoffman, the Conservative candidate in New York State for Governor, will be elected, and speaks of him in the highest terms as "a man beyond the reach of calumny," so upright has been his life. In regard to the proposed constitutional amendment, we make the following extracts:

"It will not better your condition; no, it will make it infinitely worse, because its ratification will degrade you, not only in your own estimation, but also in that of all who value the right of self-government the world over. They want guarantees! You have already given all the guarantees that it is possible for any people to give, consistent with self-respect and the true dignity of human nature. But this guarantee business is a swindle; its intent is not at all what the meaning of the word implies, but in plain English it is this: 'We want you to surrender a portion of your right of self government into our hands, and according as you are weakened we shall be strengthened in tyrannical power. Thus shall we be enabled to gain full control of the government, and you shall become our serfs forever!'

"Guarantees!—what guarantee have you, when you accept the 'amendment,' that you will then have the diminished representation it would give you? Do not the more outspoken of their leaders say you shall not? Have they not deceived you often enough already? Do you want still further to degrade yourselves, only that they may the more securely place the iron heel of despotism upon your neck? No, my friends; the spirit of radicalism is relentless in its savage ferocity and cruelty, and the more concessions you make the more stringent will be the chains that bind you, the more galling will be your yoke.

"I wish my feeble voice of warning could be heard through the entire South, that they might stand firm in this their hour of trial and adversity; and though portentous gloom may now enshroud their land, yet so sure as day followeth dawning, so sure will the eternal principles of truth and justice prevail, and the Southern people stand before the world in the power of their might, a redeemed and disenthralled people."

The South.

There are some violent partisans who are seeking to gather, replant and cultivate anew all the seeds of contention between the North and the South. We regret to see that they are, to a certain extent, successful; that the good sense and magnanimity of the people does not immediately and emphatically condemn and frustrate the attempt to confirm an antagonism between the sections. The North had never more cause than now to love, to admire and respect the South. In war they proved themselves valiant, constant and self-sacrificing; in peace they prove themselves dignified, in their sorrow resigned, but not humiliated; faithful to their covenants and true to the best instincts of an enlightened and free-born race. The war and its results have developed some of the finest qualities of the Southern people, and has demonstrated in them attributes of great value to themselves and to the country, that it was not known before that they possessed. We knew before that they were brave, chivalric, generous and intelligent; we know now that they are energetic, resolute, industrious, and capable of making use of all the resources that nature and science have placed within their reach. We know now that they are able to do more than to gather the fruits from their prolific soil; that in invention, in ingenuity, in the manufacture of what is essential to them in peace and war,—in everything except wealth and the experience of accumulating wealth,—they are the equals of the North. We should be proud of this, not envious or afraid. It is another promise of prosperity and grandeur for the Republic. It should teach us at once to cancel the elements of antagonism, and to make every effort to secure the friendship and confidence of a people so well qualified to co-operate with us in the great mission of approving the beneficence of self-government. They are to be our co-laborers in the work of strengthening our nationality; and it is our duty, as it is our interest, to save them from all unnecessary humiliation and disadvantage. If the Radicals would act in view of these truths, the peace and happiness of the country could easily be secured.—N. Y. News.

The Rule of a Minority.

We find in one of our exchanges the following estimate of the comparative strength of the Radical and Conservative parties, based upon the indications furnished by the late contests in the Northern States:

Against the Radicals (North)	2,000,000
Against the Radicals (South)	1,500,000
Total	3,500,000
For the Radicals (North)	2,400,000
For the Radicals (South)	100,000
Total	2,500,000

This estimate, says the journal referred to (the Philadelphia Age), shows that to-day a majority of not less than one million of the people of the nation is opposed to the "torch and turpentine" faction, and yet the people are helpless. When we couple with this the additional fact that the President of the United States, the Secretary of State, and probably Generals Grant and Sherman and Admiral Farragut, are opposed to the Radical party, it seems wonderful indeed that it should still maintain its ascendancy. The anomaly—and that, too, in a country professing to be governed by popular principles—is presented of a government swayed by a minority! About two fifths of the voters of the nation domineer and rule over the other three-fifths! It is not possible, if this great majority is determined and in earnest, that so unnatural a condition of things can long continue.—Rich. Whig.

It makes people's mouths water to think of the revenue of some of the English ecclesiastical functionaries. The net revenues of the Bishopric of London for the year 1865 were $100,335 in gold; of the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, $54,350 in gold; and of the Dean and Chapter of Westminster Abbey, $143,695 in gold.

PROSPECTS OF CHARLESTON.—The Charleston Courier gives a flattering account of the trade of that city. Cotton is freely pouring in.—Twelve or fifteen steamers are keeping up communication with the North, and come and go well freighted, while the doctors find the city remarkably healthy.

Election of Senators in Vermont.

MONTPELIER, VT., October 23.—The Vermont Legislature to-day elected United States Senators to fill the vacancies occasioned by the deaths of Messrs. Collamer and Foot.

Hon. L. P. Poland was elected to fill the unexpired term of Senator Foot, and the Hon. George F. Edmunds and Justin S. Morrill are elected for six years from the 4th of March next.

THE SENTINEL.

Friday Evening, Oct. 26, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Rosenbaum, No. 16 Fayetteville St., is again on hand with new and elegant importations. Particular attention is directed to his announcement of gentlemen's calf boots at the extraordinarily low price of $4.

W. L. Fort, Executor, will sell a valuable tract of 400 acres of land, on the N. C. Railroad, 8 miles from Raleigh, with desirable improvements, on the 15th prox. Also some personal property.

Davis & Jones, Grocers and Commission Merchants, Fayetteville St., announce a splendid assortment of groceries, &c , &c. Their stock is large and imposing, and we will endorse that they give satisfaction to the wholesale and retail trade.

See notice of Towles' Weekly Auction to-morrow.

W. H. Crow offers for sale "the finest pony horse in the State."

Saddle stolen.—$10 reward offered.

THE MATCH GAME between the "Tar Heel" and "Pioneer" Base Ball Clubs will take place on Friday evening next. We learn that each Club has adopted an appropriate uniform.—The match will doubtless attract many spectators. We hope that some of the experts will give us a full account of the game.

THE HALLS in the Capitol are being put in thorough order for the meeting of the Legislature. What between the hanging of handsome gas fixtures, new carpets, re-burnished desks, and renovation generally, they present an appearance every way creditable to the State.—All the work has been carried on under the general supervision of Mr. Secretary Best, and reflects credit upon his taste.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the Yarborough Hotel, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given. The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

Election in Texas.

NEW ORLEANS, October 23.—The elections in Texas took place on the 15th instant. Thus far, the returns received show the vote to be very small. As far as heard from, Bradshaw leads Epperson in the First district. Ochiltree is ahead in the Second district.

A Radical Paper on the Situation in Maryland.

The Chicago Republican says of Forney's late letter to the Philadelphia Press, in which he tells the North to prepare to invade Maryland:

"We not only deprecate, but we heartily and unqualifiedly denounce, as dangerous to the country and fatal to the Republican party, the language which Colonel Forney writes from Baltimore."

The reply of the Republican to this open invitation of Forney's for the inauguration of another civil war is as follows:

"Pennsylvania and the North will reply that this Maryland quarrel must be adjusted according to law and without any rebellion on the part of Union men. It Gov. Swann has the legal right to remove the Commissioners, let him do so. If he does so from corrupt reasons, impeach him. If the President has the lawful power, as he certainly has, to order troops into Maryland to sustain Gov. Swann in any official acts which Gov. Swann is permitted by the law and the courts to do, let no loyal Union men of Maryland fire on the Federal flag, for they cease to be Union men when they do so. But let them submit for the hour to these encroachments of despotism, being assured that if rightly improved they will only hasten the more complete triumph of liberty. Again we say, let no Republican fire on the Federal flag. Let no heretofore Union man shed the blood of a Federal soldier. Thus far the skirts of our party are unstained by this great crime. Let us maintain, in spite of every provocation, our allegiance to the Union and our possession of the flag, and denounce as political mountebanks and charlatans the would-be Republican agitators who would throw us into the false position of rebels against the national authority."

A gentleman of New York has replied through the Tribune to the magnificent offer of Mr. A. T. Stewart to donate a million of dollars to build tenement houses for the poor, by tendering lots of ground for the houses that amount of money will build.

State News

FORSYTHE COUNTY.—It will be seen that Col. J. F. Matthews has been elected to the Senate from the Disirict of which this county forms a part, and Messrs. P. A. Wilson and E. B. Teague to the House. Col. Matthews and Mr. Wilson will vote against the Howard amendment. Mr. Teague, we infer, will swallow it whole.

GRANVILLE.—Although this is the adjoining county to Wake, we are yet without advices as to the names of the members elect to the Legislature and as to the state of the gubernatorial vote. This simple fact illustrates the culpable indifference that prevailed with regard to the late election.

——An outrageous and cold-blooded murder in New Hanover has just come to light. Mr. Alexander McAllister, living near Lillington, about ten days since went in search of some missing sheep, and was not heard of until within a day or two since, when his body was found with marks of violence on it and the throat cut from ear to ear. It was buried under logs and a slight layer of earth. Marks on the ground made by a hoe, which was known to be in the possession of a certain negro, with the fact of his coming home with bloody clothes, point to him as one of the murderers.

——In the United States Court, now in session in Newbern, but little has been done beyond empannelling the jury. Judge Brooks delivered a charge, which the Journal of Commerce describes as "very learned, though to some extent singular."

——Bishop Pierce is to preside at the approaching session of the North Carolina M. E. Conference in Fayetteville. En route, he will preach in Wilmington, on the first Sabbath in November. Dr. Deems is expected, also, in that City about the same time.

——The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Wil., Char. and Ruth. R. R. Co. was held in Wilmington on yesterday. Col. Cowan, the present able and energetic President, was doubtless re-elected. Gen. Dockery was among the stockholders in attendance.

——The number of prisoners now confined in New Hanover County jail, awaiting trial, is sixty-seven. One is incarcerated for murder, two for highway robbery, four for rape, and the remainder for petty larceny. With but few exceptions, the prisoners are all freedmen.

——The Dispatch says that black loaferism is on the increase in Wilmington. Upon the streets, and along the wharves, scores of idle negroes, young, strong and healthy, are lounging about, with apparently nothing to do, or no disposition to do anything.

——The boating business on the Cape Fear is in a flourishing condition. The steamer Hurt has been repaired and is as good as new. Messrs. C. B. Mallet, T. S. Lutterloh and R. M. Orrell have each a new steamer on the river.

——The dry goods and furnishing establishment of H. B. McMillan & Son, Fayetteville, was entered by burglars on the night of the 16th., and robbed of a quantity of valuable clothing, &c.

——Guilford Superior Court is in session the present week, Judge Fowle presiding. The docket is unusually heavy, many cases growing out of the war having been removed there from other counties. Most of them, however, have been compromised.

——A meeting of the members of the bar, in attendance on Guilford Superior Court, was held in Greensboro, on Tuesday, for the purpose of passing resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Jno. M. Morehead. Ralph Gorrell, Esq., presided. Hons. Jno. Kerr, Thos. Settle and J. R. McLean, and Messrs. R. P. Dick and Thos. Ruffin addressed the meeting in terms of high eulogy of the distinguished deceased.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR

Maggiel's Pills and Salve.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS.—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Book-keeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

1866. FALL TRADE 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.
